The Bee & Jupiter

The bee once brought a gift of honey to Jupiter, who was so pleased he offered to give her whatever she asked for. The bee asked for a sting with which she could kill anyone who tried to take honey from her hive. Jupiter refused this request, since he loved human beings very much. He said to the bee, "You won't get exactly what you asked for. If someone comes to take honey from you and you attack him and wound him, your sting will remain in the wound and you are the one who will die."

Moral: Evil wished generally harm the wisher.

AESOP

from Their Royal Majesties

Gracious and Generous Outlanders, Your Crown, Bela and Elizabeth bid you harken unto Our words...

We are rich beyond all reckoning and Our wealth cannot be measured, for the depth and breath of Our people's diligent creativity is as the Ocean, unfathomable and ever present. You have earned the undying gratitude of your Crown and We could not be more willing to give it. Thank you so much for your extraordinary support of Our Kingdom at Pensic and throughout this reign. We shine because of all that you do and give to this amazing Kingdom.

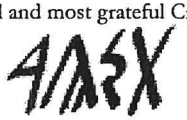
Summer in now drawing to a close and We have earnestly begun Our search for Our heirs for We would not give up such a jewel to just any one, but only to a truly worthy partnership who would treasure her and guide her in the long winter months ahead. We have seen the artistry and beauty that Our people can create but the shadow of war looms on Our borders, so we shall seek Our heirs on the tournament field to insure the safety of Our Kingdom, for Might shall seek to do right and protect the grace of the Outlands.

Join us in the Hinterlands on September 14th for this day of fierce and honorable combat and stay to drink a toast to Our loyal and diligent Warlord, Sir Ceasan MacCullum ~ bearer of Our mighty Axe "Thunderhead", who will be gracing a new Outlands Warlord with the duties and responsibilities of his position on Sunday afternoon. We will then proceed to ride to the Challenge of the Sands to test the metal of Our southern youth only to return to the warm revelry of the Shire of Caer Galen and the gentle Arts and Sciences of Dragonsspine.

In closing We do charge Our bards to sharpen their wit and tune their weapons for there are no warriors so deadly as the Poet, who doth render words into art and deeds into history. We shall also seek to find at Our Crown Tournament the one who will bear the title of "Windhover" Bard. Our Kingdom Bard will walk in those hallowed footprints of Mistress Kyriel and create the songs and stories of Our Kingdom's future history.

Deal fairly with one another and care for each other for the long lazy days of summer are drawing to a close and We shall have need of one another throughout the long cold winter.

Your Dutiful and most grateful Crown



King

Queen

In particular, we welcome those new to the SCA to join us for a day of classes, tournaments, feasting, and dances. In short, NEWCOMERS, THIS EVENT IS FOR YOU!

There will be classes to help you navigate the who, what and where of the SCA!
There will be a heavy weapons tournament for fighters with less than 1 year of experience fighting!
There will be a fencing tournament for fighters with less than 1 year of experience fighting!
There will be an archery shoot for anyone with less than 1 year of experience shooting!
There will be a clothing competition for anyone who has been in the SCA for less than 1 year!
You get the idea...

Lest the more experienced among us think that they have been forgotten, there will be opportunities to join in each of the day's activities and achieve special recognition for presenting a shining example to our newcomers. Come one and all and help make this a memorable first event for the future of the Outlands!

From the Seneschallate

Unto the populace of the Outlands does Master Adam Stedefast, Kingdom Seneschal send greetings,

Many thanks are due to the stahlwart autocrat of StagsCon, Lady Jehannette who did a fine job coordinating the Premier Service Event of the Outlands. Heartfelt thanks go to the kingdom officers and StagsCon instructors whose knowledge and expertise made the event possible in the first place. StagsCon has grown over the last several years due to the input of the populace. Please send me any feedback you might have, so that the event can continue to evolve to meet the service needs of the Outlands.

Speaking of those whos support service to the kingdom, the Outlands seneschallate team continues to grow. Many thanks and congratulations to Lady Rhiannon Ferch Fychen for stepping up as the new Kingdom Minister of Children. Lady Rhannon brings a great deal of experience, both society and modern, to this position. Her skill and enthusiasm fills me with confidence that this will be a busy and fruitful time for the ministry of children.

Speaking of children, as you read this missive it will already be September and time to concentrate heavily on the Outlands Toys for Tots efforts. A challenge was made at Grand Court at Estrella last year to see which kingdom will raise the largest number of Toys this year. Sources tell me that other kingdoms have already begun gathering toys. I am confident that the Outlands' unified effort this November will work the magic it usually does. For several years, we have consistently raised more toys than any other kingdom. Let us come together in this effort, and prove one more time that the populace of the Outlands knows the value of hope and kindness to children who need our help.

Thanks for reading, and be well. In Service, Adam

From the Society Treasurer

Society Exchequer Needed.

At the July 20, 2002, quarterly Board of Directors meeting it was announced that the Exchequer-Elect had resigned.

The current Exchequer's warrant expires at the October 2002 Board of Directors meeting and an interim Exchequer will be warranted for six months to handle the office as well as train the incoming Exchequer-Elect.

The Board of Directors is accepting applications for the position of the Society Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The Society Chancellor of the Exchequer reports directly to the Treasurer of the SCA, Inc. This office is responsible for administering the activities of the Kingdom Chancellors of the Exchequer and for collating their reports for the Society's tax returns and other financial reports. The "Society Exchequer" is also responsible for overseeing the financial affairs of the regional corporate publications of the Society, and the proper review and implementation of Branch Financial Policy as well as review of Kingdom and Newsletter accounts.

Experience as an exchequer, and familiarity with SCA financial reporting is necessary. The ideal candidate needs to be familiar with accounting on a regional level. While a degree in accounting is not required, a solid background in accounting, auditing, or taxes is desirable.

The Society Chancellor of the Exchequer is a part-time, paid position, and requires an average of 40 hours per month. Occasional travel may be necessary, but direct expenses will be reimbursed by the corporation. Telephone and e-mail access is required. The successful candidate is scheduled to assume the office at the April 2003 quarterly meeting of the Board of Directors and will serve as an unpaid deputy until then.

Please send your resumes (SCA and modern) plus a cover letter to Society Exchequer Resumes, SCA Inc., Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036, or via email at resumes@sca.org. Resumes must be received no later than October 1,2002.

From the Laurel Representative of the WAR Council

Unto the faire and talented populace of the Outlands, warm greetings from Mistress Averil, Laurel Representative to the War Council.

The time has come to consider how you can contribute to the Outlands' Estrella War effort by demonstrating your particular talents in the Arts & Sciences. The categories for the Estrella War Arts and Sciences competition are:

Heraldic Display defined as any historically documented object suitable for period display of heraldic arms. Arms must be passed by the College of Heralds.

Functional Period Accessories (non-jewelry) defined as any functional accessory item i.e., hats, belts, pouches, shoes, etc., that one would wear that is appropriate to the period of SCA interest.

Period Clothing Construction defined as any single garment, excluding accessories, that is constructed using period techniques, materials, patterns and design.

I encourage all artisans to create works of art in these categories and help the Outlands shine forth and keep the Estrella A&S banner!

This summer the decision on the categories for Estrella 2004 and 2005 will be made. In order to advise Their Majesties on those categories in which the Outlands excels, I need your counsel. Please send your thoughts to me at: Laurel_Anderson@msn.com or Laurel Anderson, 330 Bartlett Drive #1703, El Paso, TX 79912

The artisans of the Outlands are renowned for their talents and for their unswerving dedication to the glory of their Kingdom!

I look forward to hearing from each and every one of you!

In Service to the Outlands, Averil duBois d'Avignon

From the Board of Directors

Greetings unto the membership of the SCA.

At the Third Quarter 2002 meeting of the SCA Board of Directors, held July 20, 2002 in Herndon, VA, the Board acted on the membership unbundling/fee increase proposal that has been out for comment. A total of 525 comments were received (a very high response rate in comparison to other items for which comment has been requested). No one option got a majority, but the most popular ideas were:

1) removing either Tournaments Illuminated (TI) or both TI and the member's Kingdom newsletter from the basic membership package (33%)
2) simply raising fees across the board (31%)
3) reinstating the Non-member Surcharge (22%).

It is noteworthy that, despite the Board's definitive statement that "pay-to-play" was not being considered, 11% of the respondents specifically said they favored that option.

The Board decided that:
1). TI will become an optional publication. The price of a sustaining membership will remain US$35 per year, but will no longer include TI-those subscriptions will be sold separately. The price of a TI subscription will be decided upon after consultation with the editor and the Corporate office to determine actual costs—the idea is that it will become self-supporting. Existing memberships will remain unchanged (that is, will continue to receive TI) until their expiration date.
2). The subscription price for additional publications will increase, as will the first-class option price for all newsletters (whether included in a membership or as an additional publication)
3). The kingdoms will get US$2 more per label per year in stipends. This is in response to the increased costs of producing and mailing the newsletters (for example, postage just went up again).
4). A nonmember surcharge of US$3 per event per non-member attendee will be instituted. These fees will go directly to the Corporation. The Society Seneschal and the corporate office will work with the kingdom officers on details of implementation.

All of the above items are to go into effect January 1, 2003. Some corresponding change to International memberships will be made in the future (hopefully in time to be implemented as of 1 January) but has not yet been decided upon by the Board of Directors.
Respectfully, Andrew Smith, Andrew of Riga, Secretary, SCA Inc.

From the Earl Marshal

Fighters of the Outlands! The time for gum-flappin' and jaw-jackin' is over, for our voices are drowned out by the DRUMS OF WAR!!

Now is the time when the gentle melee training you should have been doing since last February begins to become more earnest. We know not who our friends nor foes are, save for stout Calontir, who marches beside us in friendship. We know not the name of the King who will lead us into combat. We know not wether we will win or lose. We know only three mthings: we know when swords will be crossed and battle joined; we know where the contentious armies will clash in the desert sands, and we know that we will bring the best prepared army to the field, and, stand or fall, we warriors that make up our Crown's mighty sword will bring naught but glory to Their great name and Kingdom!

Our training has honed us, and will continue to do so, but as we train, our kit suffers. Keep safe yourself and your chums, both from injury, and from torn straps and broken buckles. Encourage each other to stretch out before fighting. Inspect each other's armor and weapons at practice, both to make sure they're safe, and legal, and so we all get used to being inspected. Frequently our newer fighters learn the rules of our game by seeing them put into action. Marshals, I ask that you start running inspections at practices, both to help the fighters get used to being inspected, and potentially to train new marshals. Fighters, take these inspections joyfully, for armor that is worn or not quite up to spec is easily repaired here at home, but could ruin your war if it goes undiscovered until you've traveled those many hours west, to the fields of glory. This is a great time for us all upon the battlefield. Experienced veterans get to teach and share their knowledge of war. Newer fighters grow into the fraternity of sweat and blood, sharing new stories, and becomeing stars in war stories, not just the audience. Revel in it and make the most of it.

It has been brought to my notice that a goodly number of the fighters in the Outlands are not as familiar with the Rules of the Lists and the other rules which govern our fighting as they should be. As all fighters in the Outlands must be members to become authorized, that means they must all get the OH, and can read this letter. If you read these last few sentences and said "Rules of the what?" see your local marshal and get the rules. If you have an authorization card, make sure you're familiar with the rules. You're expected to know them, and could easily lose your authorizations if you don't. For your sake, and that of your fellow warriors, take the time to study (or re-study) the rules. While training your body for war, train your mind as well.

Be safe! Train hard! Have fun! - Cathyn

Listed below you will find the requirements that have been set forth for Outlands Event Announcements. Please note that those items listed as 'Mandatory' must be present in the appropriate event announcement, or I will be unable to print the announcement.

Mandatory in ALL event announcements:

- Name of the Event
- Sponsoring Group
- Event Date(s)
- Mundane name of site and address of site, including ZIP code
- Contact Information for the Autocrat
- Contact Information for Reservations (if not Autocrat, and they are being taken)

  - All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)
  - How to make checks payable

Mandatory in FINAL event announcement (Month of):

- All above information
- Site Open and Close times
- Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- Directions to site (include distances, street names, etc.)
  - Do NOT assume signs will always be visible
- All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)

Optional, but highly recommended:

- A map to the site
- Schedule of events
- Feast menu (if feast is provided)
- Other pertinent site information (pet restrictions, water availability, etc.)

'Contact Information' for autocrats as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available. Contact Information' for other coordinators as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
